Stanford Infant School will:

- Aim to ensure that every child does their very best at all times;
- Provide exciting learning opportunities to excite and engage every child;
- Send home general information regularly in the form of Newsletters, Learning Journey Information and letters about other school events;
- Contact the child's family as soon as possible if we have any concerns about their health, work, behaviour or attendance;
- Inform parents and carers about their child's progress and ensure there are regular opportunities for meetings with teachers, staff and governors;
- Provide parents and carers with an annual written report on their child's progress and achievements;
- Have an 'open door' policy to enable the staff and Head Teacher to sort out any concerns/worries as soon as possible.

The family will:

- Be committed to support the school's ethos and values;
- Ensure that their child arrives for school, and is collected after school, on time;
- Ring the school by 10am if their child is absent and provide an explanatory note on their return;
- Be committed in ensuring that their child achieves a high level of attendance and not take them out of school during term time;
- Ensure their child wears the school's simple uniform and sensible shoes;
- Show commitment to their child's education by attending open evenings and other school events where possible;
- Let the school know if anything happens out of school that will affect their child in school (we will treat anything you tell us in the strictest confidence);
- Support and encourage their child's learning.

The child will try to:

- Uphold the Golden Values of friendship, respect, excellence and courage at all times.

Together we will:

- Make Stanford Infants a safe and happy learning environment;
- Uphold the Golden Values and be proud of our school;
- Support the school through the Governing Body and PTFA;
- Support every child to enable them to achieve their full potential.

When we all uphold all our values, we are proud!
