

The Children of Stanford Infants 2020

You have learnt so much during lockdown.

You have learnt to be safe and happy.

You have learnt to wash your hands for 20 seconds.

The song "Happy Birthday" will never be the same again!

You have learnt to keep in touch in different ways.

You have learnt to see your teachers and friends virtually.

You have learnt to watch assemblies online.

The word zoom now has two meanings – to go fast and to connect.

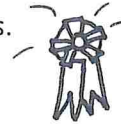

You have learnt to listen.

You have learnt to be patient.

You have learnt to keep doing all the things we've taught you.

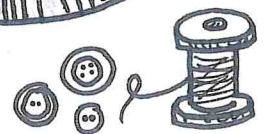

Your Home Learning has impressed us.

You have learnt to do different things...

Maybe ride a bike, sew, bake, or draw.

You have learnt to play different games.

You are creative.

We have learnt so much too...

We have learnt to adapt quickly and do things in many different ways.

We have learnt that we can still connect with you, even when you aren't at school.

Filming ourselves is now a natural experience!

You have been such 'green mice'.

You are friendly, respectful, and courageous.

You are resilient at times of challenge.

You are the children of the future and we are so proud of you.

RESPECTFUL

You are the children of 2020.
