

100 square activities

- Practice counting and pointing to each number as you count.
- Point to a number, say the number and how many tens and ones it has.
- Count forward and backwards.
- Say the number that is one more or one less than a given number.
- Say the number that is ten more or ten less than a given number.
- Count in tens and point to each number, talk about the pattern.
- Count in twos and point to each number, talk about the pattern.
- Count in fives and point to each number, talk about the pattern.
- Write down a given number and check it on the 100 square.