

Advice for Families

We are telling and listening school, with an 'open door' policy.

Please make an appointment immediately if you have any worries, no matter how small, with a member of school staff. Our Anti-Bullying Policy can be found on our website: www.stanfordinfants.co.uk Or you can request a copy from the School Office.

It's not your fault
if you are experiencing bullying behaviour.

A Children's Guide to Staying Safe and Happy at Stanford Infant School

March 2012

Updated November 2016

Bullying behaviour....

- is being hurt physically and/or hurting your feelings
- happens over and over again
- is done on purpose

Bullying behaviour is not....

- accidental
- falling out between friends

Bullying behaviour may involve....

- hitting, kicking, biting, pushing
- saying unkind things
- leaving someone out or ignoring them
- name calling

What shall I do if I am being bullied?

- *don't do it back
- *tell a grown-up at school (get a Bubble!) or at home
- *talk to a friend
- *DO SOMETHING!

What shall I do if I see or know about bullying behaviour?

- *tell a grown up at school
- *DO SOMETHING!

Children who show bullying behaviour can change their behaviour so that they can be safe and happy at school too.

Remember 'It's GOOD to be YOU'!

What If..

You are in the playground and someone accidentally trips you up. Do you...

- a) Hit the person hard?
- b) Give him or her a chance to say sorry?
- c) Sit down and cry?

Give the person a chance. If it was an accident, then he or she should say sorry.

Someone in your class always makes rude comments about you and says them loud enough for you (and others) to hear. It really upsets you. Do you...

- a) ignore the comments
- b) Say 'Stop it, I don't like it'
- c) Tell a grown-up
- d) Hurt the person

Try saying 'stop it, I don't like it' but tell a grown-up because no one should make hurtful comments to you,

You see someone being bullied. Do you...

- a) ignore it, walk by and be thankful it isn't you
- b) Stop it
- c) Get help?

Tell a grown-up to help you straight away
